

VERSION A 1

Complete the sentences with the right form of the words in brackets.

1. I rarely give money to _____ (BEG) who ask me for it in the street.
2. Please, wait for me in the _____ (DEPART) lounge at the airport.
3. My uncle signed an _____ (AGREE) with the landlord and moved into the flat.
4. Unfortunately, _____ (TIDY) is not one of my features of character. I'm rather messy.
5. My son's school offers a wide variety of extracurricular _____ (ACTIVE).
6. Jack came down with a strange _____ (ILL). The doctors are confused about his symptoms.
7. The _____ (PROBABLE) of winning a lottery is so low that I really don't know if it is worth trying.
8. It's just a small _____ (INFECT) so you don't have to be concerned about your child.
9. We have to postpone our _____ (ARRIVE) as our train was delayed.
10. Ann was disappointed with my _____ (PERFORM). She thought it would be more entertaining.
11. I am at risk of losing _____ (HEAR) as one of my parents has this problem.
12. Tom didn't accept the job as it didn't offer any chances of _____ (DEVELOP).
13. Your _____ (DEPEND) on your parents is really worrying. You should try to make decisions on your own and finally become independent.
14. If you want to be a successful writer you have to constantly develop your _____ (CREATIVE).

VERSION A 2

Complete the sentences with nouns created from the following words. There are more words than you need.

development, performance, creativity, infection, honesty, agreement, imagination, dependence, probability, hearing, appearance, tidiness, beggar, boredom, activity, illness, arrival, departure

1. I rarely give money to _____ who ask me for it in the street.
2. Please, wait for me in the _____ lounge at the airport.
3. My uncle signed an _____ with the landlord and moved into the flat.
4. Unfortunately, _____ is not one of my features of character. I'm rather messy.
5. My son's school offers a wide variety of extracurricular _____.
6. Jack came down with a strange _____. The doctors are confused about his symptoms.
7. The _____ of winning a lottery is so low that I really don't know if it is worth trying.
8. It's just a small _____ so you don't have to be concerned about your child.
9. We have to postpone our _____ as our train was delayed.
10. Ann was disappointed with my _____. She thought it would be more entertaining.
11. I am at risk of losing _____ as one of my parents has this problem.
12. Tom didn't accept the job as it didn't offer any chances of _____.
13. Your _____ on your parents is really worrying. You should try to make decisions on your own and finally become independent.
14. If you want to be a successful writer you have to constantly develop your _____.

ANSWER KEY

1. beggars
2. departure/arrival
3. agreement
4. tidiness
5. activities
6. illness
7. probability
8. infection
9. arrival/departure
10. performance
11. hearing
12. development
13. dependence
14. creativity