

Watch the clip again and complete the gaps with a word or an expression.

..... people in the world live without clean drinking water, especially in developing areas. Lack of water affects,, women and children,

Why does it affect them?

- The time which is spent walking can be devoted to to read or write, or of the family.
- Contaminated water from rivers, ponds and swamps lead to,, diarrhoea, children's deaths because of
- Walking is dangerous because women walk alone, they are burdened with 40 pounds of water, might be or

Building water filtration systems and drilled or hand-dug wells are some of the solutions which will bring water to people in need. This will offer them a lot of opportunities like restoring hours each day to a person's life,, getting, working, starting or raising

Clean water means less disease, less money spent on medicine, more money for books and school uniforms.

Choose one of the following tasks.

a. Write a post on a forum or blog in which you will

- Describe a campaign promoting water conservation you took part in
- Write what you learnt about water crisis during the campaign
- Explain how you are going to start taking care of the environment
- Ask other people about their opinion on the topic of water crisis

b. Work in a group. Prepare a commercial that will promote a reasonable use of water. Your commercial may be addressed to adults, teenagers, the elderly or children. You can choose the form of your commercial.

c. Write an article for a local newspaper in which you will describe what water crisis is and how it affects people. In the second part of the article present different solution to the water crisis.